

Living HE loved me dying HE saved me buried HE carried my sins far away, rising HE justified and freed me forever, one day HE's coming back; that glorious day.

24th Holy Convocation of The 4th Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of ENY of The COGIC

Women Department, Interim Supervisor Mother Lola Stinson

2015 COGIC Theme:

Christ's Extreme Sacrifice Calls for Our Extreme Commitment

II Cor. 5:14-15

2015 COGIC Women Department Focus

"Call for Holy & Committed Woman"

Jeremiah 9:17-21

We agree that God loves us so and that HE sent HIS only begotten Son. We believe that God's Son is Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom lived, sacrificed/gave HIS life to reconcile us to HIS Father; God raising HIM on the third day, our Savior ascended in the heavens, sent the Holy Ghost, and said HE is coming back to receive us to HIMSELF.

Jesus act of love and obedience to HIS Father was illustrated in the Garden of Gethsemane prayer of sweat, blood and tears, HE uttered "not MY will, but THY will be done"

Jesus knowingly allowed HIMSELF to be accosted by the high priest and soldiers and as Peter slew the ear off of one of the soldiers, Jesus put that man's ear back. It was HIS purest example of "nonviolence". Went with the oppressors, Jesus carried out the MASTER's plan to redeem.

Jesus' extreme sacrifice made us worthy to receive the gift of eternal life. Jesus carried our sin burden being that sacrificial lamb, slain...

As followers of Jesus, as believers of the saving grace, as disciples, as ambassadors for Christ, as member of the COGIC who is formally designated called Saint as having a life of holiness of this great salvation, as holy devoted women; how could we show Christ's diligent commitment and humble sacrifice?

Questions to Examine Our Personal Walk

1. Does the cares of this life hinder us so that we lose focus of why Jesus was born, died, buried, rose, and ascended to HIS Father? Which causes us to lose sleep, pray less, not pick-up our Bibles, do not attend weekly services, or Sunday school.

2. How Holy do we live our lives?

3. How faithful is our walk in the vocation where which we are called?

4. How devoted are we to witness and sacrifice our time, money, and talents in telling our testimonies, ministering in word, deed, or song of the saving grace of our Lord and Savior, and the love that God has for us?

5. Does our witness, or testimonies, and/or vocation in the ministry exceptionally dedicated to our precious salvation and the Gospel of Reconciliation?

6. Do you need a position in the church to be loyal in our relationship with Jesus our Lord?

7. Can we say truly we are sincere in our walk with the Lord?
